DIED SUDDENLY

OF HEART DISEASE.

How frequently does a head line similar to the above greet us in the newspapers. The rush, push and strenuousness of the American people has a strong tendency to lead up to valvular and other affections of the heart, attended by irregular action, palpitation, dizziness, smothered sensations and other distressing symptoms.

Three of the prominent ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made are recommended by some of the leading writers on Magna Medica for the cure of just such cases. Golden Seal root, for instance, is said by the UNITED STATES DISPENSARY, a standard authority, "to impart tone and increased power to the heart's action." Numerous other leading authorities represent Golden Seal as an unsurpassed tonic for the muscular system in general, and as the heart is almost wholly composed of muscular tissue, it naturally follows that it must be greatly strengthened by this superb, general tonic. But probably the most important ingredient of "Golden Medical Discovery" so far as its marvelous cures of valvular and other affections of the heart are concerned, is Stone root, or Colinsonia Can., Prof. Wm. Paine, author of Paine's Epitome of Medicine, says of it:

"I not long since had a patient who was so much oppressed with valvular disease of the heart that his friends were obliged to carry him upstairs. He, however, actually recovered under the influence of Colinsonia (medicinal principle extracted from Stone root), and is now attending to his business. Several physicians knew of no remedy for the removal of so distressing a condition as a valvular disease of the heart."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure Constipation. WASHING WITHOUT WATER. Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Shampoo.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water? If you did what would you say of him? It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of dandruff and prevent baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Cantharides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors. Newbro's Herpelide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots. It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured. Sold by leading druggists. Send in stamps for sample to The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Murder of a Judge.

Judge George Emory, one of the most prominent lawyers of Seattle, Wash., and for many years a resident of Syracuse, N. Y., who was shot twice by Chester Thompson, the nineteen-year-old son of William Thompson, formerly counsel for the Great Northern Railway and a nephew of Maurice Thompson, the poet and author, at his home Saturday night, died from his injuries yesterday morning.

Young Thompson, who was a student at the University of Washington, was infuriated with Judge Emory's niece, Miss Charlotte Whittlesey, a beautiful sixteen-year-old girl, to whom the judge's attentions were very direct.

It is said that she had asked him to marry her, and he had refused. She was so jealous of her father, who was so jealous of her.

On Saturday night Thompson telephoned asking if Miss Whittlesey was at home. Judge Emory, who answered the message, replied that she was not, and informed the young man that he would not be welcomed there.

In a few moments the young man, breathless and without hat or coat, rushed up the steps of the Emory home and rang the front door bell.

"I want to see Charlotte," he demanded, as the judge opened the door.

"She is not here, and you cannot see her," said the uncle, extending his arm to bar Thompson's entrance.

Whipping out a revolver without another word Thompson fired point blank at Judge Emory. The first shot struck the judge in the hip, the second pierced his left lung, and the third wounded Mrs. Keith, who was visiting the Emorys.

As the judge fell to the floor, Thompson sprang over his body and ran upstairs, calling for Miss Whittlesey, who was not at home.

The desperate young man found Clara and Thomas Emory, the judge's children, three and four years old. Taking them into a bedroom, he pushed the bedstead against the door, and when the police, who were immediately notified, demanded his surrender, he held them at bay for several hours by threatening to kill both children if an attempt was made to capture him.

Finally, Thompson's father, a well-known lawyer, arrived and persuaded his son to give himself up.

It is believed that Thompson went upstairs with the determination to kill Miss Whittlesey, who had recently rejected his proposal of marriage. He swears that he meant only to kill himself if she repulsed him again, and he had intended to force her to a final answer that night.

Late Paris Sensation. Under the interrogative headline, "It It Clara Ward?" the London Observer prints a story of a queer Paris escapade of a woman claiming to be the Princess of China, who with George Raoul, a retired general in the Greek army, created a sensation among the neighbors in their apartments, on the Rue Bolivar.

Mme. Raoul, as the woman was known sometime ago, rushed out of the apartment in scanty attire and fled shrieking down stairs. She was followed by Raoul, who was shouting threats that he would kill her. Neighbors intervened and the woman returned to the apartments. She hastily dressed herself and went out and has never been seen since.

Then Raoul locked himself in his room, but the police, who had become suspicious, forced an entrance and discovered the old man trying to burn the furniture. He had set fire to the room, and was uttering incantations. He was conveyed to the infirmary and is believed to be crazy. The police found letters in his room which described at great length Clara Ward's life on the Riviera with Rigo.

Niagara Falls Already Ruined. "Niagara Falls are already ruined," says the eminent hydraulic engineer, Alton D. Adams, in Technical World Magazine for April. "Already enough water rights have been granted by New York state and Canada to divert all the water which now, falling over both the American and the Canadian falls, makes the great cataract one of the natural wonders of the world. If the capitalists and promoters who now hold franchises were all to establish plants, the entire flow of Niagara river would be diverted into underground channels, and the mighty cliffs over which the torrent now pours in resistless grandeur would be left rugged and bald and dry."

Mr. Adams sees small hope in the proposed treaty between the United States and Great Britain. He does not believe that Canada will be a willing party to any treaty which will cut off the great income it enjoys from leasing Niagara power. His plan is to excavate and deepen the channel leading to the American falls, which will otherwise run dry long before the Canadian or Horseshoe falls will be at all affected.

Hail The World Wonders. How the other half lives. Those who use Bucklen's Arnica Salve never wonder if it will cure Cuts, Wounds, Burns, Sores and all Skin eruptions; they know it will. Mrs. Grant says, 1130 E. Reynolds St., Springfield, Ill., says: "I regard it one of the absolute necessities of housekeeping." Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' druggists, 25c.

Wife-beater Killed by a Mob.

Oliver Bryant, a coal miner of Vanderburg county, Indiana, drank to excess yesterday afternoon, and when he went home he quarreled with his wife and ended by giving her a beating. Neighbors heard the screams of the woman, and a mob was organized Sunday night, and while Bryant was sleeping off the effect of the liquor, they broke into his house, took him out, and beat him so terribly that he died yesterday. Bryant was practically helpless in the hands of the mob, but he was kicked, beaten with clubs, and pounded over the head with the fists of the excited crowd. The mob is said to have been led by A. J. Gleich, a prominent farmer and fruit grower, and he was arrested yesterday, charged with murder. Harry Linville, a blacksmith, is also under arrest on a similar charge, and warrants are out for a number of others. The parties under arrest say that they did not intend to kill Bryant, but only wanted to punish him for the brutal assault on his wife.

Closing hours for July and August, 6 p. m., pay-days and Saturdays excepted.

Snake Held Women Enthrall.

Six women, who sat together on the front porch of the home of Daniel Shradish, on Dock street, Schuylkill Haven, Pa., declare that they were completely enthralled by a monster copperhead snake, which emerged from under the porch and coiled itself in front of them Saturday. Charles Detweiler, who was passing by, saw the women sitting as if paralyzed with their eyes on the reptile. As he looked on the snake uncoiled and started to glide toward one of the women. Detweiler rushed into the yard and struck the snake with a club, killing it. Three of the women swooned after the danger was over.
